Twenty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time
August 29, 2021

EVANGELIZATION TEAM- WHAT DO I MEAN BY THAT?

So I have talked about this for a while, and I myself have thrown around ways to actually implement it. This idea came out of a diocesan gathering earlier this year, when the presenter talked about how this could work out. The idea is that evangelization is not just something for the priest, but for all. When some people hear that, they may shrink in fear at the thought that they are supposed to preach, or to knock on doors to invite people. I am not totally against that idea, but what I am really looking for is that you give me your prayers and your ideas. As a priest who does not get to see other priests near enough, and works at these two parishes alone, I need people who care about the faith of others, who will regularly meet to pray, to discuss, and to advise. If this is something that you are interested in helping me in my ministry, and in the mission of our church with, let me know.

CALLING ALL YOUTH

There are two big events coming up for our youth. One is a meeting a week from today, on September 5. This is a simply 90 minute or so meeting, where we will meet, have fun, eat, pray and learn about the topic "Choose your friends wisely". This is the first real, live meeting that we have had since COVID hit. It will be an outdoor event, assuming the weather is at all cooperative. I welcome all of our youth grades 6 to 12 to join us for this. On September 17, we take things up a notch by having our first OVERNIGHT lock-in that we have had in quite some time. These have always gone over really well, and they are a deep spiritual experience, not to mention a lot of fun. Yes, they do wear out the kids (and the priest) but it is well worth it.

We do plan soon on doing a couple of high-school only events, which will involve some service project for one of the local charities, and followed by dinner and discussion (what we used to refer to as "Lets Taco Bout it). More information on this will come soon.

WHY "THE CHURCH FATHERS" FOR BIBLE STUDY?

That is a question asked for me, regarding the upcoming topic on this Fall's Bible study. In order to better understand the Bible itself, and its origin, it helps to understand the writings done around the same time as the Bible itself, and to understand what the Christian world was doing and teaching around the time that the Bible was being written and put together. The writings that they put down were not written by the apostles, and thus were not in scripture and not on the same level as scripture. But these early church fathers who wrote these writings were often the very same ones responsible for the fact that certain books were or were not in the Bible. So the mindset of both the scriptures and many of these early Christian writings is the same. Come and join us.

HONEYFEST JOBS RIGHT NOW: At this point, there are two main things that we need for our St. Elizabeth parishioners to do in preparation for the Honeyfest: Sell raffle tickets, and get donations for the silent auction. These two things will largely make or break the financial success of our Honeyfest. We ask everyone to go out and get (in whatever way possible) at least ONE thing/assembly of objects, that can be auctioned off. This is NEW objects, or gift certificates, etc. that can go up for auction. We will succeed by everyone doing their part.
