ST PAUL PARISH PICNIC UPDATES, NEEDS

So the parish picnic is only about 6 weeks out. Sooo, what does that mean to us? Well, nothing to panic about, but I would like to point out to you some things that have been decided about this so far:

- We will be featuring the music of the Millerstown Band
- We will once again be raffling off a Bad Boy M2 Magnum 54" Zero Turn Mower (valued at $5300- or a $3500 cash option)- Tickets $5 each
- Also raffling off TWO quilts, made by Janie Foster and Helen Gawarecki ($2 each)
- Also raffling off a porch swing, made by Dale Clark and Bradley Bradley($2 each)
- Also having a Car Smash, with opportunity to win UK or UL football tickets
- Meal will cost $12, or $6 for kids
- We have something new this year: the CAKE WAR. The theme for this year is "summer fun". Cakes are judged based on the best decorated. Trophies for winners. Winning cakes will then be auctioned off

What we need from you all:

- Be willing when we call and ask you to volunteer for something to do
- Be seeking things to donate to the auction
- We will need people to bring in :
  - Jars for jar booth (or at least things that we can stuff in jars)
  - 2 liters for ring-a-pop
  - Cakes and pies for both the cake wheel and desert for dinner
  - Vegetables for dinner

ASK PADRE QUESTIONS WILL BE ANSWERED SOON:

Starting next week, it will be the regular (though not necessarily every week) practice that one of the "Ask Padre" questions will appear in the pastor's corner. In some cases, these will be answered in the course of sermons. I actually kind of look forward to doing this. Our Catholic faith is very rich, with so much to learn that the average Catholic (and even the average priest) can never learn it all. So much of what you may have been taught in the past you may have forgotten. But the truth is always there.

This coming Fall, our "Bible Study" session will be merged with the RCIA, as something totally different. We likely have 5 RCIA candidates, and the stuff that we go over in that class is stuff that will be new (or renewed) teachings to the average Catholic. I welcome you to join us for that beginning in August.

A word from Bethlehem Wood Carvers – Visiting June 25 & 26

Holy Land Catholic Christian is a life changing, faith changing experience. The knowledge and faith of the guides is humbling. The reality for those folks today is painful and we have resisted sharing this until now, but the situation is growing dire. Since March 2020, no pilgrims have visited the Holy Land. All those whose livelihoods depend on wood carving have struggled. They have received no financial assistance from the government and the need for help to support their families is real. This is a humble request for you to make a difference in the lives of the people who impacted your faith life. You may consider your gift and supporting our mission by visiting our display after all masses on the weekend of June 25/26.
